LANDED IN THE JAIL

Lewis and Turk to Serve Thirty Days.

Lewis and Turk, the shipping masters, yesterday began to serve a sentence of thirty days each in Oahu prison for violation of the shipping regulations. Their offense consisted in boarding the Sewall before she had been passed by the customs officials, though they had been warned to stay away. Both men pleaded guilty, in the hope, no doubt, of receiving a fine as did William Young. They were the most surprised men in the court room yesterday when Judge Estee imposed a fine of twenty dollars each, and in addition a jail sentence of thirty days.
Their attorney, E. S. Gill, attempted to have the order modified, but the Court declined to even consider such a motion, nor did the added entreaties of Mrs. Turk produce any effect.

OTHER CASES IN FEDERAL COURT.

Charles Richardson, charged with assault upon the high seas, was acquitted by the jury which wrestled with his case for four hours yesterday.

The trial of A. Manasse was commenced at 10 o'clock and a jury secured. Evidence and arguments were finished at a session last evening. Ma-nasse is alleged to have assaulted Mail Carrier Silva while he was on duty on New Year's day.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

A return was made in Circuit Court yesterday in the case of J. C. Axtell vs.
H. E. Hendricks, damages for false imprisonment. The two men were formerly in business together, and Hendricks charged Axtell with having embezzled funds to the amount of $600, which charge was disproved upon trial before Judge Wilcox. Axtell alleges that by reason of such false arrest he was compelled to pay $1500 for an attorney and other expenses, and that he had been damaged in the amount of $10,000.

The case of Mikio vs. Adamu and Albert Horner for foreclosure of mortgage was called up before Judge Robinson yesterday, but went over until Friday upon the court giving defendant leave to amend the answer.

Celebrate Miss Davis' Birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis entertained a number of guests Saturday evening at the social hall, at Ewa plantation, in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter Ursula. There was a full attendance of the residents of the plantation and a score of young people from the city were there. The park was decorated with Chinese lanterns and the pavilion was elaborately arranged with palms and cut flowers, bunting and ribbons. There was dancing and supper was served at small tables arranged about the pavilion. The dancing was kept up till a late hour and the entire evening was one of the most enjoyable that has been spent for many days at the plantation.

The President has pardoned Alfred Plant, convicted with other soldiers of robbing a Chinese shop at Hongkong.
